

Yisimeich Elokim

Composed by: Chaya Bruria Sachs

Original lyrics by: Chaya Bruria Sachs and Shoshana Kruger

©1998 Chaya Bruria Sachs, Shira Productions

Listen my child, as I will share with you
All of my dreams, since the day you were born Throughout each dor, mothers have yearned that Their daughters should strive to follow the ways of our imahos
As the shabbos candles glisten and all the children stand and listen her daughter feels blessed as she says. . .

Chorus:

Yisimeich Elokim, k'Sarah, Rivka, Rochel, v'Laya

May you be zoche to be (just) like them

Reflections of lives, mirrored in qualities
Beauty and chain, through midos and faith
When met with a challenge, chesed and tznius, anavah and torah
Have been the ways of our imahos
Let these midos be the fire that guide you as you journey higher my daughter you'll always be blessed

Chorus

They were our imahos, and that is why you have the power and strength within you every hour
To be a true bas yisroel

Chorus

V'yizku liros banim uvnai banim oskim batorah ubamitzvos
May you be zoche to have children who will be just like you!
They were our imahos, they were our imahos, may you be zoche to be just like them!